TENNIS CHAMPION MOVES TO ZION

Carr Neel, a Real Racquet Expert, Takes Up His Residence in Salt Lake.

The high class contingent of tennis players in this state has just been augmented by securing a player of national reputation in Carr Neel. Carr Neel has just taken up his residence in Utah. He is a brother of Sam Neel, the local broker. Sam Neel has held the intermediate championship in singles, and his brother is rated fully as good if not a better player than Sam. The two brothers were at one time champions of the United States in doubles, which shows the class of game they play.

that can hold down a family title just about over all comers. In addition to this galaxy of stars there are several individual players who rank well up with the elite.

While Carr Neel has not so announced, it is expected he will start playing for form as soon as the spring season opens, and there is no doubt but that he will be a contender for championship honors from now on. With his brother as a partner, the former American champions should be able to force the Salisbury boys, Roberts boys, Brown and Badger to put up some great tennis if either of the latter teams expects to win championship honors in the future.

Carr Neel will go into mining in Utah, having of late years been assistant superintendent of the Cerro de Pasco smelters, in Peru.

M'CLOSKEY LANDS GOOD JOB

Honest John Signed to Manage Milwaukee Team Coming Season.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 4.—John J. McCloskey, for several years manager of the St. Louis National league team, and a big player of the old school, will manage the Milwaukee baseball team in 1909. He succeeds Barry McCormick. The deal for the big league was closed by Charles S. Havenor, president of the club, after considerable correspondence and several personal interviews. McCloskey's duties begin immediately. He will go to the New York meeting of the baseball men Saturday and remain in the east several days.

The American, National and Eastern leagues, the American association and the national commission all meet in New York Sunday. Several trades affecting the lineup of the Brewers next season have already been "doped," and will in all probability be carried through while the new manager is in the east.

McCloskey Has Good Berth.

In securing McCloskey to manage the Milwaukee team, President Havenor has made what is believed to be his best move since he has been identified with the national game. McCloskey will be hampered in his efforts to get together a strong team. He will have a

The selection of McCloskey to head the Milwaukee team will come as a surprise to fans in this and other cities. The selection came time ago, but after until President Havenor had carefully looked over all the available material. McCloskey is known to Havenor better than others who are supposed to be free.
